

United Faculty of Theology & the UCA School of Ministry

Invite you to a lecture by

Professor Peter Read

Visiting Fellow, ANU Centre for Indigenous History

Remnants of the Child's Cry Echo Loud in My Mind: After the Apology, What Now?

Respondent: Elizabeth Pike

Elder at Aboriginal Catholic Ministry, Victoria

Wednesday 27 August 2008
at 7.30pm

*Entry by donation, proceeds to Nungalinga
College, Darwin*

Wyselaskie Hall
Centre for Theology & Ministry
1 Morrison Close
Parkville VIC 3052

Peter Read has worked extensively as an historian of Aboriginal Australia. In 1980, along with Oomera (Coral) Edwards, he founded LinkUp, an organisation which seeks to help members of the Stolen Generations to connect with their families. He is the Chairperson of the ANU Journal of Aboriginal History.

Betty Pike is an Aboriginal elder and author. Her most recent book, River Dreaming, was launched in April.

